

This transcript was exported on Dec 19, 2022 - view latest version here.

Stephen Williamson:

If you don't file it timely, within 90 days, you may be barred forever from bringing a claim. That's the law. So it's very important, if you've been hurt, if you've been wronged by the City of New York, to consult with an experienced lawyer as quickly as possible so they can do an investigation well in advance of that 90 day time deadline to file the notice of the claim.